By train

The nearest Underground station to our office is Liverpool Street. This is served by the Metropolitan, Hammersmith & City, Circle, Elizabeth, and Central lines.

Moorgate Station is also a short walk away for the Northern, Circle and Metropolitan lines.

Liverpool Street Station also serves most mainline services from Essex and East Hertfordshire.

Walking directions from Liverpool Street Station

Our office is less than 5 minutes' walk from the station. Exit the Underground onto the mainline concourse and look for Boots Pharmacy near Platform 1 for mainline services, and with Boots on your left (and platform 1 to your right), walk down the passageway past the stores and coffee shops, out through the glass doors and up the steps in front of you into Exchange Square. Walk straight ahead across Exchange Square, up the steps under Exchange House and down the steps the other side. This brings you to Primrose Street with The Broadgate Tower facing you, set back slightly from the road. The entrance to the building is at the side, opposite Pret.

A more accessible and step-free route would be to take the Sun Street Passage located to the left of the steps of Exchange Square leading to Pindar Street. As you walk to the end of Sun Street Passage, turn right onto Primrose Street. After crossing the road, proceed approximately 150 meters to the right, where you'll find the entrance to Broadgate Tower.

By bus

The Broadgate Tower is well serviced by major bus routes. Many operate along Bishopsgate and some run to and from the station itself. Please see the Transport for London Bus Route Map for Liverpool Street Station and Bishopsgate for more information.
